TIRED OUT!

At this season, nearly every one needs a tonic to restore the system, and to give the blood its natural vigor.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or constipation—other iron medicines do.

Dr. G. H. BIRKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exactly all other forms of iron. In weakness, or slow condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."

Dr. W. N. WATERS, 1319 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

Genuine has above Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

THE ARMY AND INDIANS.

MR. MULBROW EXPLAINS ALL ABOUT THE INDIAN WAR.

Why the United States Government Did Not Interfere With the Utes—The Forts in Store for the American Silk Raiser—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Acting Secretary of the Interior Mulbrow said to-day that the reason the department and the government didn't interfere in the recent Ute trouble, was because the law distinctly prohibited the use of the army in a state, except in case of an insurrection, and then only at the request of the government.

Mr. Mulbrow quoted the following act passed by the Forty-fifth congress: "From and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful to employ any part of the army of the United States as a posse comitatus, or otherwise, for the purpose of executing laws, except in such cases and under circumstances as such employment of said force may be expressly authorized by the constitution or the act of congress."

"We didn't receive any information leading us to suppose there was an insurrection in Colorado. There were a number of dispatches sent here to the effect that the Ute Indians were off their reservation and were on the warpath. This entire Ute question has been misunderstood and misconstrued."

In the first place United States troops couldn't have been ordered against the Utes unless the governor of Colorado had notified the president that there was an insurrection which the state authorities were powerless to suppress. If the regulars had been sent against the Utes the cry would have been raised that the government was interfering with the rights of the state and invading its prerogatives. There is no law for the use of troops in keeping peacefully inclined Indians within the reservation.

United States Court Judge Dundy, of Nebraska, decided recently that an Indian who would mind his own business and travel about peacefully, could not be compelled to return to his reservation.

Mr. Mulbrow also said the latest news was that the Utes had all returned to their reservation, and the so-called war was over. The interior department had received no official news of loss of life at the Rangely fight. Indian Commissioner Atkins has notified the agent at the Ute reservation to see that all persons who have no right there be ordered away. He believes these trespassers are trying to incite a disturbance, and are responsible for the recent trouble.

Silk Culture.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The agricultural department hears excellent reports from the silk industry on the Pacific Coast. It is believed by those who have studied the subject that there are fortunes to be made in California in that line, as it has already gained a footing and needs but enterprise to push it. The climate is especially adapted to the raising of silk-worms, and the raw silk is pronounced superior to the Asiatic or European article. The workworms have been entirely carried on by women and children, to whom, in 1883, the state gave the worms and necessary attachments. With the exception of Los Angeles, the best quality of silk is produced in Northern California. As yet the silk has not been used in the manufacture of material, the only articles being made were two American flags. It has been entirely used to make silk thread, for which purpose it is considered too good.

The Centennial of the Constitution.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The president is taking a decided interest in the centennial celebration of the adoption of the constitution, which is to take place in Philadelphia during this month. He has determined that the military and naval forces shall be well represented on the occasion. Gen. Sheridan has been directed to assume the command of the military forces. It has been decided to order the two troops of cavalry at Fort Myers, Va., one light battery from the arsenal in this city, and one light battery from Fort Hamilton, New York harbor, to participate in the celebration. Five companies of foot soldiers from the division of the Atlantic to be designated by Maj. Gen. Schofield will also take part in the ceremonies. The navy, it is understood, will be represented by the entire North Atlantic squadron.

Carlie at Oak View.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Hon. John G. Carlisle, with his wife, left his hotel quarters last evening, and will spend the next four days at Oakview with President Cleveland. Of course, everybody will take a guess at what all this means. The president, however, says he has only invited Mr. Carlisle to his house to spend a few days in secret chat, and Mr. Carlisle himself says the same thing.

The Boston's Trial Trip.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Private dispatches received at the navy department to-day confirm the published report that the trial trip of the new cruiser Boston in Long Island sound yesterday, was a successful one. The test was for power only, and her engines developed considerably more than the required horse power.

Trial Trip of the Cruiser Boston.

New York, Sept. 3.—The United States cruiser Boston made a successful trial trip up the sound yesterday, fulfilling the most sanguine expectations of her builders, as well as the advisory board of examiners. The engines were tested to their fullest ex-

STATUS OF THE VATICAN.

HOW IT WILL BE EFFECTED BY THE POPE'S JUBILEE.

The Church's Relations With the Various European Governments—The Jubilee to be Made the Grandest Affair Ever Witnessed—Other Foreign Affairs.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The jubilee of Pope Leo XIII, for the celebration of which most extensive preparations are being made, will undoubtedly have a great effect upon the immediate future of the Catholic church in Europe, and the status of the Vatican in its relations with the various European governments. In perfecting the arrangements necessary to a proper display of magnificence on the occasion, none of the possibilities of the church aggrandizement have been overlooked, and the representatives of the different sovereigns who will be present to assist in the rejoicings over the pope's attainment of his fiftieth year of priesthood, will scarcely be permitted to take their departure after the celebration without having been sounded to their full depth by astute Vatican diplomats in search of something indicating their personal opinions, as well as the views of the rulers they represent, upon the question of the restoration of temporal power to the head of the church.

Already the suggestion of ceding back to the church a portion of the domain it has lost has made a surprisingly deep impression upon the minds of some of the most patriotic of Italian statesmen, but the Vatican's reliance for the success of its plans is not wholly, or even in great part, placed upon the slow process of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see revived at the time of Queen Victoria's jubilee has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight, but really it has not for a moment been lost sight of. Nor have the resources of the Vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration been to any considerable extent drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote.

This question will be in various ways paraded before the English representatives during the pontifical festivities and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a similar exhibition in the form of insidious presentations of advantageous results in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

Aside from the unadulterated fact that the jubilee will be made the most of by the pope and his eminently able lieutenants to pave the way to outside influence in favor of re-establishing the kingly character of the pontiff that can later be brought against Italy, the celebration will be one of the grandest affairs that Europe has ever witnessed, and its magnificence will doubtless impress many persons who would be invulnerable to verbal argument or persuasion. Nobody knows the value of regal and at the same time opportune display better than the pope does, and he may be depended upon to dazzle his royal and semi-royal visitors into the belief that royalty is bolting its greatness by exalting Leo XIII from among the monarchs of the earth.

American Dollars Spent Abroad.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Life estimates the number of American visitors to England this year at ninety thousand. It places the average expenditure of each American tourist here at £100, resulting in a benefit to English tradespeople of over £4,000,000. The same paper states that the book on the queen is now engaged is a work embracing the leading experiences and events of her life. It will make a three-volume publication. Life further suggests that Princess Beatrice could and may write a book of great interest, giving her spiritual experiences. It asserts that the princess is a devout believer in spiritualism, and has certain mediumistic powers.

A Ship in Distress.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—A severe gale has been raging throughout Great Britain and off the coast since last night, and to-day many shipping casualties are reported. The Samaria, a Cunard steamship, which left Liverpool on August 30, with 1,000 passengers, was sighted to-day returning to Queens-town. It is feared some mishap has occurred to her. Telegraph wires are down all over the country, and the heavy rains have caused all the rivers of Devonshire to overflow.

Pleading for a Cowboy.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—A question will be asked in the house of commons concerning the severe sentence of six months' imprisonment with hard labor recently passed on Buffalo Bill's giant cowboy, who knocked down the policeman who arrested him for disorderly conduct. A great effort is being made to secure his pardon. St. Stephen's Review publishes a number of letters appealing from the unusual severity of the sentence.

England Has Another Fish Fight.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The dispute between England and Belgium over the fisheries question is assuming a serious phase. The government is now inclined to resent the treatment to which English fishermen have been subjected by the Belgians at Ostend, and will insist upon their receiving fair play. If arbitration fails there may be a resort to arms.

Stambuloff's Ministry.

SOFIA, Sept. 3.—M. Stambuloff has definitely announced the formation of his cabinet as follows: M. Stambuloff, prime minister and minister of the interior; M. Stransky, minister of foreign affairs; M. Natobevsky, minister of finance; M. Montkuroff, minister of war; M. Kieffoff, minister of instruction; M. Stolloff, minister of justice.

Does not Fear the Government.

DUBLIN, Sept. 3.—Mr. Joseph Richard Cox, M. P. for East Clare, writes that he will address his constituents at Bally Corcoran on Sunday, despite the government's prohibition of the meeting.

Western Union Wires Withdrawn.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—The Western Union Telegraph company, in conformity with the demands of the officials of the regular board of trade, has at last withdrawn its wires from the floor of the open board of trade, thereby cutting off that concern from all direct telegraphic communication with the regular board. In spite of this the open board disclaim any intention of quitting the business.

At Ohio Hanging.

JOSEPH TERRILL DIES ON THE SCAFFOLD—Testing His Innocence to the Last.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 3.—Joseph Terrill, convicted of murder of an old man named Phelps in Meigs county last January, was hanged about 12:30 this morning at the penitentiary. He protested his innocence to the last. His neck was broken in the fall and life was extinct in fifteen minutes.

The history of the crime for which he was hanged is as follows: Charles Phelps, aged sixty-five years, an old miser living near Pomeroy, Meigs county, Ohio, was found murdered in his hut on the morning of January 6, 1887. His throat had been cut and the hair of his head was frozen to the floor in a pool of blood. Terrill was arrested on suspicion and convicted by an unbroken chain of circumstantial evidence, not a word of controverting evidence being offered by the defendant. A hand glass and overcoat belonging to the old man were found in his possession, and he was seen near the scene of the murder on the day in question. For years he had been regarded as a worthless fellow, of homodie disposition, his name having appeared on the criminal docket on numerous occasions, although never directly charged with serious felony. He was soon to have married Miss Pernelin Allmado, a young lady in the neighborhood.

WOOSTER, O., Sept. 3.—A disastrous fire occurred at Spring Mountain, Holmes county, O., Thursday. Loss, $16,000; insurance $3,000. The cause is believed to be incendiarism.

SLAIN BY THEIR ENEMY.

Peter and Henderson Green Killed By Ed. Cooley Near Lancaster, Ky.

LANCASTER, Ky., Sept. 3.—A shooting affray which cost one life and will cost another occurred in the upper portion of this county, about five miles distant, at 6 o'clock last evening. Peter and Henderson Green, brothers, came to this place yesterday afternoon, and getting full of bad whiskey returned by the way of the house of Ed. Cooley, with whom they had not been on good terms for some days. When within a short distance of the house they began firing their pistols, and accosted Cooley, who was sitting on the fence, with: "Get out of the way, you ——" Cooley made no reply, and the Greens passed on.

In about fifteen minutes they returned, again firing. Cooley was prepared for them this time with a shot-gun and a 45-caliber revolver. As the Greens approached they fired directly at Cooley, who returned the fire. Cooley, after killing Peter and mortally wounding Henderson, gave himself up to Deputy Sheriff W. L. Lamson and is now in jail here. All parties concerned were well known as dangerous men. Cooley is the man who killed George Scott with an ax a short time ago in self-defense.

Further From the Texas Floods.

WACO, Tex., Sept. 3.—Latest advices from Hill county state that every bridge in that county was washed away from rains, and the damage to crops and farms will not fall short of $100,000. In Basque county and along the line of the Santa Fe railway the damage is also heavy. Of the little towns here, Iredell, Whitney, Rico and Aquila, have suffered most. The railroad companies have suffered severely. It is believed the Central and Missouri Pacific are the heaviest losers. The Missouri Pacific has a force of nearly one thousand men at work on the line near Grand View.

Declined By Diphtheria.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 3.—An epidemic of black diphtheria is raging at Lockport, Pa., a small town of 200 inhabitants, situated on the Pennsylvania railroad, about sixty miles east of this city. Nearly half of the population are reported down with the disease, and thirteen deaths have occurred within the past five days. Recently an old viaduct, which formed a part of the state canal, was destroyed by dynamite at that point, leaving stagnant pools of water, which it is believed caused the epidemic. The victims are seized with black vomit, and usually die in two or three days.

NEW YORK'S WINE LAW.

IT HAS GONE INTO EFFECT AND WHAT ITS PROVISIONS ARE.

Dealers Who Adulterate Will Get a Year in Prison—Even the Use of Carbonic Acid Gas Forbidden—Interview With a Wholesaler on the State of Affairs.

New York, Sept. 3.—The new law against the adulteration of wine went into effect in this state yesterday. It absolutely forbids the manufacture or sale of any wine that has been treated with any one of a dozen different deleterious substances, and leaves water and sugar, with grape brandy, about the only things that can legally be added to the pure juice of the grape in the manufacture of wine. The law includes carbonic acid in the list of forbidden adulterants, and, therefore, prohibits the use of the carbonating or "new process" method of making champagne.

The difference between the new and the old, or French process, is that the new way is to manufacture the carbonic acid gas separately, and force it into the wine, just as it is forced into soda water, while for the old method the gas is formed in the wine by the natural process of fermentation. Eminent expert authority is quoted in support of the statement that it is impossible for a chemist to tell by analysis whether the gas in any sparkling wine is the natural or the artificial product. Imprisonment for a year, $1,000 fine and an additional fine of $1 a gallon are penalties that may be imposed for violation of the law.

There are about a dozen firms in the state engaged in the manufacture of the "new process" wine. Most of them are in this city. They held a conference last week and decided to continue the business as usual, and to unite in making a legal fight, if any attempt is made to enforce that part of the law. They claim that the words "carbonic acid" were slipped into the bill in the interest of foreign wine men and manufacturers in this country who use the French method.

At the office of H. T. Dewey & Son, on Fulton street, it was said:

"The law merely anticipates our action, as we were about adopting the old process anyhow, on account of the bad name some unprincipled wine concoctors had given the carbonating method by adulterating their product. For that reason we are not in the combination to fight the law, but we believe with the other wine men that there is neither justice nor validity in the prohibition of the use of carbonic acid. As for the rest of the law we heartily favor it. It is as much a safeguard for reputable manufacturers as for the public. The 'gaulating' of wine by the stretching of it with water and sugar, which is not dangerous adulteration, can be continued, but the 'gaulated' product must be labeled at its true value. The law says letters half an inch high must be used in marking bottles as containing 'pure,' 'half' or 'made' wines, according as they have 25, 50 or 75 per cent. respectively of the water and sugar in them."

"As for regular injuries adulteration, that is stopped altogether, and you have no idea how much of a stoppage it is. Why, they make wine now-a-days without a particle of grape juice in it. We have just received from Portugal a proposition to supply us with a secret coloring matter. The proposition has it all figured out for us to show that with an amount of their stuff, costing $15 in our money, we can turn 1,650 gallons of white wine into claret. They sent a sample with the offer. Just so much of it as could be taken up on the point of a knife blade, turned a glass of water in an instant into the loveliest claret colored liquid you ever saw."

ROYALTY AND BLAINE.

He Is Dined By the Prince of Wales at a Private Dinner.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—A special cable to the News from Homburg says: Last evening Mr. Blaine was the guest of the Prince of Wales at a private dinner. Marquis Mayer, the Florentine banker and the prince's financial prop, was the third member of the party. Mr. Blaine and the prince met at the spring early in the week. They both take the cup about the same hour. The following morning they met again and walked through the forest. Tuesday night during the dancing reunion the prince entered with part of the royal retinue. Mr. Blaine and Mr. Wanamaker were conversing with several American ladies near the entrance arch. The ladies of the household gathered around and all the Americans save Mr. Blaine, retired. One of the titled ladies sat down beside Mr. Blaine, and Miss Cole, the blonde beauty and attendant of the Princess Christine, interested the prince. Mr. Blaine kept up a rattling conversational fire at his companion, she nodding her head in evident approval of everything he uttered. Presently Mr. Blaine and the prince were left to themselves. Mr. Blaine arose and assisted the prince to support the pillar. There the distinguished invalids posed and talked for half an hour. The stag dinner of last evening was the consequence. Mr. Blaine is in fine favor with the prince as well as with the aristocracy. He was one of the principal guests at the picnic given Monday by Sampson, the East Indian Consul, and has exchanged visits with Lady Campbell.

Rapid Railroad Building.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—The Railway Age says: "It is probable that the number of miles of new road constructed in the United States during 1887 will be about 12,000. This figure is the greatest on record. It has never been approached, except in 1883, when the total was 11,593 miles. Track laying for 1887, up to September 1, aggregates 6,463 miles. Kansas still continues far in the lead over the other states in the work of railroad construction."

It was decided that benefits under the policy were cut off by conditions. It was a test case, and nineteen other cases are decided by it.

WOULD BE RAPIST LYNCHED.

Charles Coleman Strung up at Flemingsburg for an Attempted Outrage.

The news from Flemingsburg this morning was that Charles Coleman was lynched at that place some time last night by a mob. The particulars of the affair have not been learned.

Coleman is the negro fiend who attempted to rape Mrs. Ringwood and Miss Ella Sweeney at the home of the former near Bald Hill, Fleming County, Sunday night, August the 28th. Mrs. Ringwood is a widow, and Miss Sweeney, whose home is near Mayslick, was visiting her at the time.

The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat says that on the evening in question "Coleman, who had been working for Mr. Dearing, a close neighbor of Mrs. Ringwood, came to the house, burst in the door, followed Mrs. Ringwood and Miss Sweeney up stairs, where they fled on his entrance, knocked Mrs. Ringwood down, bruising her severely, and then seized Miss Sweeney and dragged her down stairs and out into the front yard some distance from the house in spite of her resistance, having almost choked her into insensibility, but as he relaxed his grasp upon her throat, she at once called for help at the top of her voice, leading him to believe some one was entering the yard to rescue her, when he released her and ran off. The alarm was given at once, and the neighbors aroused, but the fiend was not captured until the following morning, when he was found in the barn at Mat. Dearing's by Sheriff R. B. Kendall and Colonel R. J. Samuel. On being taken before Miss Sweeney, she positively identified him, but said that he had changed his hat. A party then went back to the barn and found the hat described by her, with blood on it."

Coleman's examining trial had been set for to-day, but the enraged citizens have put an end to his career. An attempt was made last Wednesday night by about one hundred negroes to mob Coleman, but they lacked a leader and the matter was given up for the time being.

There have been two other rapists in the jail for some time—the Pugh brothers—but they were not disturbed last night. It was thought at Flemingsburg this morning that an attempt will be made to-night to lynch the Pughs.

A Jealous Husband's Fearful Fate.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 3.—Last night Joel Parent, a farmer fifty years of age, living about eight miles from Windsor, Ont., shot and mortally wounded his wife, who was thirty years his junior. Thinking he had killed her, he rushed from the house with the revolver in his hand. A party of neighbors was organized and started in pursuit.

Parent was found in a field some distance from the house with three wounds in his breast, as though made with the times of a pitchfork. He had been dead some time. It is supposed that the old man went into the field with the intention of shooting a farm hand of whom he was jealous, and had been stabbed in self-defense. The hired man has not yet been found.

Killed While Hunting.

YORK, Neb., Sept. 1.—James H. Meacham, a prominent map publisher of Detroit, was accidentally shot yesterday while hunting, and died of the effects of the wound shortly

TROUBLE BREWING.

G. A. R. Men Interested in the Coming Encampment at St. Louis.

New York, Sept. 3.—A special to the Tribune from Pittsburgh says there was an excited gathering of military and legal men last evening in the office of a prominent lawyer. The matter under discussion was the treatment which the Grand Army men were likely to receive at St. Louis during the coming National encampment. Capt. A. B. Hay thought there was no doubt that trouble would arise. "I am perfectly willing to march under any one's picture," he said, "and I think the more steady G. A. R. men would do so also. But there are always some hot-headed men in our ranks, and the least thing which appears like an indignity to them raises their anger. It is hard to say what might happen under the circumstances. The people of St. Louis are extremely foolish if they intend hanging up any emblem likely to raise the animosity of the Grand Army men. While I will not refuse to give due honor to President Cleveland as the executive of the United States, I nevertheless have but little respect for him as a friend of the Federal soldiers."

Gen. Pearson, who is a Democrat, said: "I am a delegate to the National encampment, and I am sorry the St. Louis newspapers and people have continued the Wheeling trouble. While I cannot speak authoritatively in the matter it is my opinion that if the G. A. R. was compelled to march under obnoxious banners in the parade there would be trouble of a serious nature. I think the best course we can adopt is to go to St. Louis, attend to the routine business of our annual meeting, and after that adjourn. There is no necessity for a parade, and it is only done in honor of the people who are kind enough to invite us to their city."

Prominent St. Louis Man Dead.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 3.—A few minutes after midnight yesterday morning, Mr. John E. Cousins, United States marshal for the eastern district of Missouri, died of dropsy at his home, No. 3451 Chestnut street, in this city, aged seventy-three. Mr. Cousins had been a resident of St. Louis for fifty-one years, and during that time had filled the positions of chief of the fire department, chief of police, inspector of buildings, inspector of customs, and finally, three years ago, was appointed United States marshal of the eastern district of Missouri, which office he continued to hold until the time of his death. He leaves two children—a daughter, Miss Phoebe Cousins, the well known lecturer and advocate of female suffrage, and a son, John, both of whom were deputy marshals in his office.

How Ives & Co. Transacted Business.

New York, Sept. 3.—George J. Bland, a Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton common stockholder, has begun an action in the United States district court, to have declared void the preferred Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton stock issued by Ives & Co. He alleges the $2,000,000 stock was fraudulently issued to themselves, the firm paying for the stock in worthless checks drawn upon themselves. Mr. Bland says the stock was then hypothecated and $4,000,000 given as security for money borrowed for their own use. Mr. Bland's complaint is interesting, as showing exactly how Ives & Co. made money after once getting control of a railroad or other valuable property.

Fell Forty Feet.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.—By the giving way of a scaffold at the new building of the American Oak Leather tannery, corner of Dalton and McLean avenues, two workmen, John Hendricks, aged thirty-four, of No. 14 East Fifth street, and Emmett Hart, aged twenty-nine, of No. 20 Arch street, employees of the Sagerdorph Roofing company, were precipitated to the ground, a distance of forty feet. Both men were picked up unconscious and conveyed to the Betts street hospital. Hart's leg was found to have been broken, and his face and body were terribly bruised and out. He will live. Hendricks was internally injured and will die.

Excitement at Sheephead.

New York, Sept. 3.—The alleged statements of Capt. Brown, charging Jockey Garrison with dishonesty in riding certain of the captain's horses caused great excitement at Sheephead yesterday. Garrison denied the printed accusation manfully. He saw Capt. Brown in the secretary's office at the race track and in the presence of several persons. Mr. Brown denied that he had made the charges credited to him. He said he believed Garrison thoroughly honest and the fact that Garrison rode for him yesterday was the best proof of this.

A Captain Kilde Tale From the East.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.—A syndicate has leased a large tract of mountain land in Perry county upon the strength of a tradition that one hundred years ago a band of Spanish outlaws were secretly engaged in smelting silver ore and coining counterfeit money. Outcroppings of silver ore have been found which will assay $4 to the ton, and also a valuable portion of lead slag was found, containing pieces of charcoal, which seems to confirm the tradition about the Spanish counterfeiters.

Helping the Irish Cause.

Boston, Sept. 3.—John Boyle O'Reilly yesterday received a letter from Mary Irene Hoyt, of New York, enclosing a check for $100. Miss Hoyt wrote that during her recent visit to Boston, where she attended a meeting of Ireland's sympathizers, she became very much interested in the cause of Irish liberty, and her check was for the purpose of helping the cause along.

Miss McGarrigle Sells for Canada.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Mrs. McGarrigle, wife of the fugitive warden, left the city last evening on the steamer Muskegon. She had with her the children of the family, and it is supposed they go to join the convicted boddler in Canada.

Only a Base Ball Rumor.

New York, Sept. 3.—With regard to the story that a syndicate of capitalists would, with the assistance of the Brotherhood of Base Ball players, form a new league and revolutionize base ball, John M. Ward, president of the Brotherhood, said last night: "There is not a word of truth in the story. If there was anything in it, I would know of it."

Notorious Horse Thief Arrested.

MADISON, Ind., Sept. 3.—The notorious Switzerland county horse thief, Simpson, was arrested here last night for stealing a valuable animal owned by Mr. Pleasant, of Vevay.

Fractured Her Skull.

SIDNEY, O., Sept. 3.—While Mrs. Mary Kelly, of this place, was visiting a son, two yards of plastering fell from the ceiling, fracturing her skull.
